MINISTRY OF FOOD AND AGRICULTURE

(Department of Agriculture)

New Delhi, the 13th February 1958

S.O. 91.—In exercise of the powers conferred by section 3 of the Agricultural Produce (Grading and Marking) Act, 1937, (1 of 1937), the Central Government hereby makes the following rules, the same having been previously published as required by the said section, namely:—

HONEY GRADING AND MARKING RULES, 1955.

1. Short title.—(i) These rules may be called the 'Honey Grading and Marking Rules, 1957'.

(ii) They shall apply to "extracted" Apis indica honey.

2. Grade designations.—The grade designations to indicate the characteristics and quality of honey shall be as set out in column (i) of Schedule I.

3. Definition of quality.—(i) The quality of honey as indicated by the grades shall be as set out against each designation in columns (2), (3) and (4) of Schedule I. It shall also possess the physical and chemical characteristics as mentioned against each grade in Schedule II.

(ii) Whenever the Agricultural Marketing Adviser to the Government of India is satisfied that 70 per cent or more of the honey produced in any particular area or season is from a specific floral origin, he may fix such special characteristics as he may consider necessary to define such honey.

4. Grade designation mark.—The grade designation mark shall consist of a label or bandrole bearing the design and colour set out in Schedule III, specifying the grade designation.

5. Method of packing.—(i) The honey shall be packed in clean glass containers (preferably wide mouthed) or china wares or new, clean and lacquered cans or tins or waxed impregnated paper cartons.

(ii) All containers shall be securely closed and sealed in a manner approved by the Agricultural Marketing Adviser to the Government of India.

(iii) Packing of honey only in standard size containers of the following net weights will be allowed:

100 g, 250 g, 500 g, 1 kg, 2.5 kg., 5 kg, 10 kg and 25 kg.

Special permission of the Agricultural Marketing Adviser to the Government of India shall be necessary for packing in any other type or size of packing.

6. Method of marking.—A grade designation mark label shall be securely affixed to each container in a manner approved by the Agricultural Marketing Adviser to the Government of India. In addition to the grade designation mark, the following particulars shall be clearly marked on the container, namely:—

- (1) Name of the packer;
- (2) Lot number to which the honey pertains;
- (3) Date and place of packing; and
- (4) Net weight.

When the floral origin of honey is known, the Agricultural Marketing Adviser to the Government of India may, in addition permit suitable marking of each container with the floral origin of the honey packed.

7. Special conditions for certificate of authorisation.—In addition to the conditions specified in rule 4 of the General Grading and Marking Rules, 1937, the conditions set out in Schedule IV shall be the conditions of every certificate of authorisation
